

ANCILLARY TRAINING (AT)

Ancillary Training is guidance or instruction that contributes to mission accomplishment, but is separate from an Air Force Specialty or occupational series. This handout is designed as a quick reference of nine AT listings (out of the current 89 Air Force AT requirements). These programs fall into the General or Awareness categories as defined by AFI 36-2201, Volume I, Chapter 4, Ancillary Training, and are governed by USAF/DPLT and the individual OPRs as listed in <https://etca.randolph.af.mil/>.

COURSE TITLE	TARGET GROUP	FREQUENCY
Continuing Security Education/Refresher	All Personnel	Annually
Initial Hazard Communication (HAZCOM)	All Personnel	Initial Assignment
Law of Armed Conflict	All Personnel	Every 15 Months
Physical Security (Phase II)	All Personnel	Every 15 Months
Protection of the President	All Personnel	Upon PCS
Suicide Awareness & Violence Prevention	All Personnel	Every 15 Months
Joint Ethics Regulations	All Personnel	Initial Assignment
Security Awareness (SATE)	All Personnel	Every 15 Months
Self Aid and Buddy Care (SABC)	All Non-Medical Personnel	Every two years

IAW AFI 36-2201, Volume 1, Chapter 4, the Training Agency documents, tracks, maintains and reports course attendance data according to AT directives; this data is to be maintained locally. We need your assistance in assuring that as IMA's this is being accomplished.

Your base, MAJCOM, or specific duties may have additional AT requirements.

Contact your local Ancillary Training Monitor or Supervisor for further information and or assistance.